

Even if I travelled the world for your favourite flower
It would never be enough
Even if I called you everyday
It would never be enough
Even if I brought you gifts daily
It would never be enough
Nothing could satisfy you
Was I supposed to cut myself in half
Then what
Would you appreciate me then
Even if I say hie
You call it boring
If I stay quiet
I'm ignoring you
One thing is for sure
I'm not the one who dosen't deserve you
You're the one who dosen't deserve me
I'm sorry I tried being your all
When I was nothing to you
Hope you'll find what you deserve
