

If it had a meaning
That meaning would be you
If it needed love
That love would be for you
If it made sense
You would be part of that sense
If it brings lovers together
I prefer that it continues to bring us closer together
I never want to repeat the same day
I wanna go to the next
And show you a new world of my love
Embark on a new Journey
I can't stop thinking of it this way
All I needed was you
For my dark days to vanish like dust
And the brightest of love days to bloom
Like the rose in my heart
I can't stop loving you
And I'm not taking you off my mind
