

Just at the right time
I swiped right
And there was the light
One that had faded long ago
It had rekindled again
And there she was
The best friend
The perfect sister
And the gift not everyone gets
It was her
Turned out to be my favourite
And I'm happy that way
Maybe one day
I'll repay her
For bringing back my life
She's the very best
At least I have a reason to live now
One that the Devil had snatched away
But God gave it back
I'll protect her
And this time with all my heart and power
I promise nothing can harm her
She'll be in safe hands
My Sister
Forever in my heart
